

From equivalent linear equations to the Gauss-Markov theorem

Czesław Stępniać

University of Rzeszów, Poland

Abstract

The normal equations have a nice geometric interpretation but their formal derivation requires the partial derivatives or a generalized inverse. By a chain of equivalent matrix equations we attain a good position to attack on the main problems in the Gauss-Markov model.